

PRESS BRIEFS – 25th August, 2008

PUBLICATION	PAGE	HEADLINE & BRIEF
Standard Saturday	19	Look beyond tariffs to stir growth in the power sector The writer Mr. K. Khan argues that the Energy Regulatory Commissions support and justification for increase in electricity charges is against consumer and national interests. He adds that the commission seems to be playing to KPLC and KenGen's tune and should have considered viable options like temporary suspension of VAT on electricity consumption until hydro generation supply normalizes.