

PRESS BRIEFS – 10th July, 2008

PUBLICATION	PAGE	HEADLINE & BRIEF
Daily Nation	10-11	At home with electricity bills With the rising cost of electricity, the writer looks at how domestic consumers can save on power consumption The writer Philip Wahome argues that the biggest inflator of power bills is not necessarily consumption but the variable fuel cost adjustment levy. He has outlined energy saving initiatives that can help consumers grapple with their bills. They are simple straightforward implementation process, low investments and immediate energy savings.