

PRESS BRIEFS 6th May, 2008

PUBLICATION	PAGE	HEADLINE & BRIEF
Nation	32	KenGen aims at self-sufficiency Two stations being upgraded to yield additional 37MW KenGen has embarked on a project to increase the amount of power from its dams to make Kenya self-sufficient. KenGen's Chairman Titus Mbathi said that the company was upgrading its power generation plants at Tana and Kiambere power stations and they are expected to bring an additional 37MW into the power grid.