Standard	22	Pakistani power cuts spark rioting in city A crowd protesting over power cuts rioted yesterday in the home city of Pakistani's Prime Minister. The protest was organized by a textile industry association, which had set Sunday as the deadline for the electricity company to reduce power outages. The country is suffering from growing power outages due to soaring demand and lack of investment in generation capacity.
Kenya Times	13	KPLC rolls out Sh220m investment plan KPLC will spend Sh220 million in upgrading three sub-stations within Mount Kenya region; some of the projects include upgrading Emburi, Kiganjo, Kianjai, Othaya, Karatina and Matuu sub-stations. The company's General Manager and CEO, Don Priestman said that these would increase capacity and improve the quality and reliability of power supply in the regions.
