

PRESS BRIEFS – 18th June, 2008

PUBLICATION	PAGE	HEADLINE &amp; BRIEF
Nation	28	Sugar company power project given go ahead Joint venture with Tarda will deliver 28MW to the national grid Mumias Sugar Company has signaled its intention of making new forays into the power industry after the National Environmental Management Authority cleared its multimillion venture with parastatal Tarda. Mumias will provide 38MW at the $341 million Tarda project, of which 26-28 MW will be delivered into the national grid. The firm will be producing another 35MW; the company has already signed a power purchase deal with KPLC.